INTRODUCTION

This report is an extract of Source's research in 2016, which has been prepared specifically for those individuals who very generously gave up their time to be interviewed. It provides a snapshot of the global consulting market as it was at the end of 2015 and a high-level summary of our client-side research on the prospects for growth in 2016 through to 2017.

The methodology section at the end of this report explains our research in greater detail.
